IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.—That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, dictates that Governments should not be changed frequently and lightly; yet when the long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, manifests a design to reduce them to absolute Tyranny, it is their duty, when a prudent and firm resistance is made, to throw off such Government, and to place themselves under the protection of God, by the declaration of Independence.—That by the consent of the People, a new Government is to be instituted, and the first object of the new Government is to secure the Rights of the People.

We the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, do hereby declare, that the thirteen united States of America, are free, sovereign and independent States, and that they are entitled to all the Rights and Privileges of such States.

And for the support of this Declaration, we the undersigned, do hereby pledge our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

Dedication

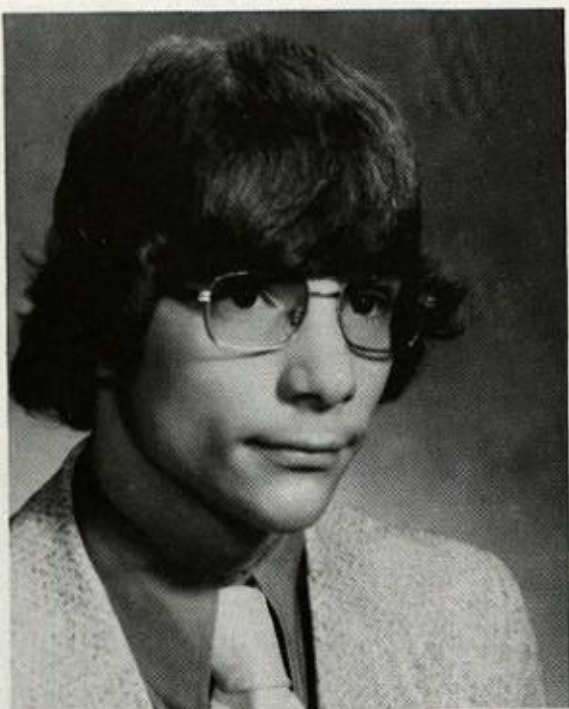

As graduating Seniors of the Class of 1976, we have spent four years of our lives under the guidance of many thoughtful and helpful teachers. One such person has given much of his time and energy, not only through the classroom, but also through athletics and other special activities. Throughout our four years of high school, he has increased our knowledge of life, and has shown care and concern towards South Adams High School. As a result, the Senior class of 1976 would like to thank Mr. LARRY LEISTNER for all his care and concern. We dedicate the 1976 Reflection to him.

Author unknown

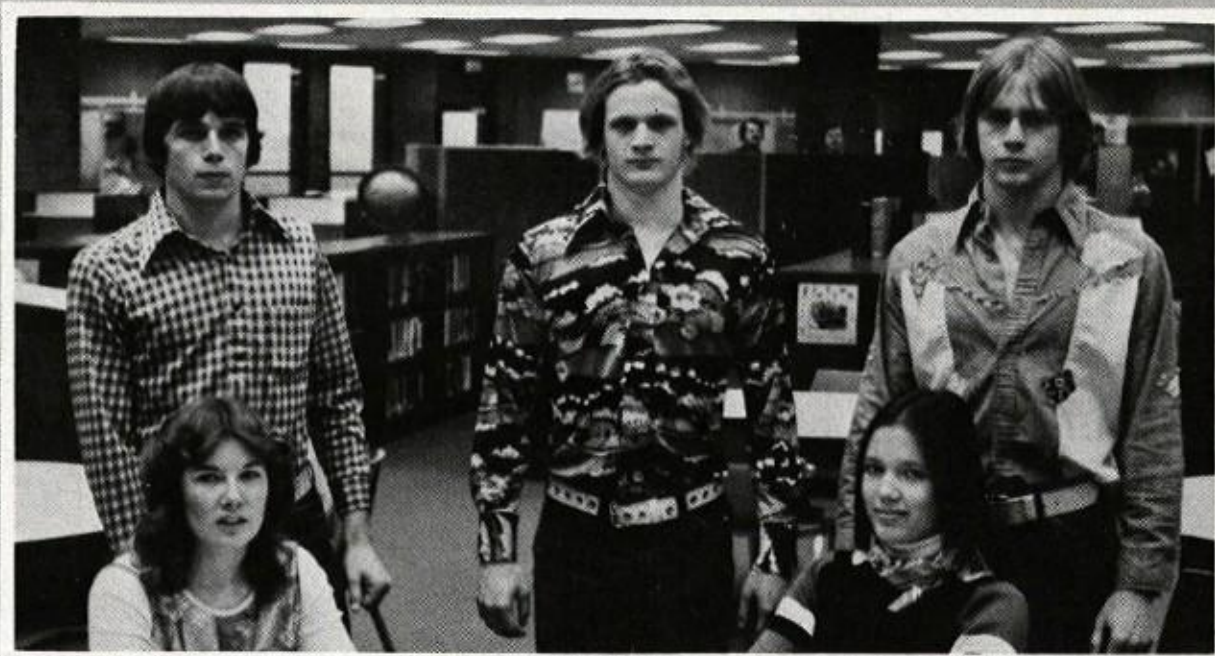

On October 6, 1975, tragedy struck at South Adams High School. A car mishap claimed the life of Steven Allan Paul, a member of the 1976 senior class. Steve was an active member of FFA, and also participated in church activities. He was well-liked by his fellow classmates, and was an outstanding individual. We hereby dedicate this senior section to Steve Paul.

CLASS OFFICERS: Tim Cincotta, President; Rhonda Bertsch, Vice President; Joyce Minnich, Secretary; Dan Koehler, Treasurer.

Class Color: Red, White, and Blue

Class Flower: Red Rose

Class Motto: I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being let me do it now. Let me not defer nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Graduation

On May 30th, 1976, the senior class of South Adams High School completed their high school education. Graduation day brought with it many mixed emotions. As seniors, we were relieved that the stress and strain of high school was over; however, deep inside most everyone felt sadness at having to say goodbye to close friends and fellow classmates. We realized that we would never see some of these people again; nevertheless, the memory of South Adams High School and this class will always remain in our hearts.

The sophomore class of 1976 and graduating class of 1978 was a quiet and only partially active class, but when they put their minds to something, their talent showed up. This class has a lot of potential and talent; all that is needed is a way to put it all into gear.

The freshman class of 1976 was a very fun-loving and loquacious one. While they mature, work will become harder and responsibilities greater, but this class will be as fun-loving as always.

Football

The Starfires started their football season with a small turnout and a new head coach Bob Bridge. The Starfires were off to a good start when injuries started taking their toll, most of these going to returning lettermen. Even though they finished with a 2-8 season, they maintained a good attitude and always kept trying. Also, the underclassmen gained much experience which will be helpful to them in the coming years.

Tennis

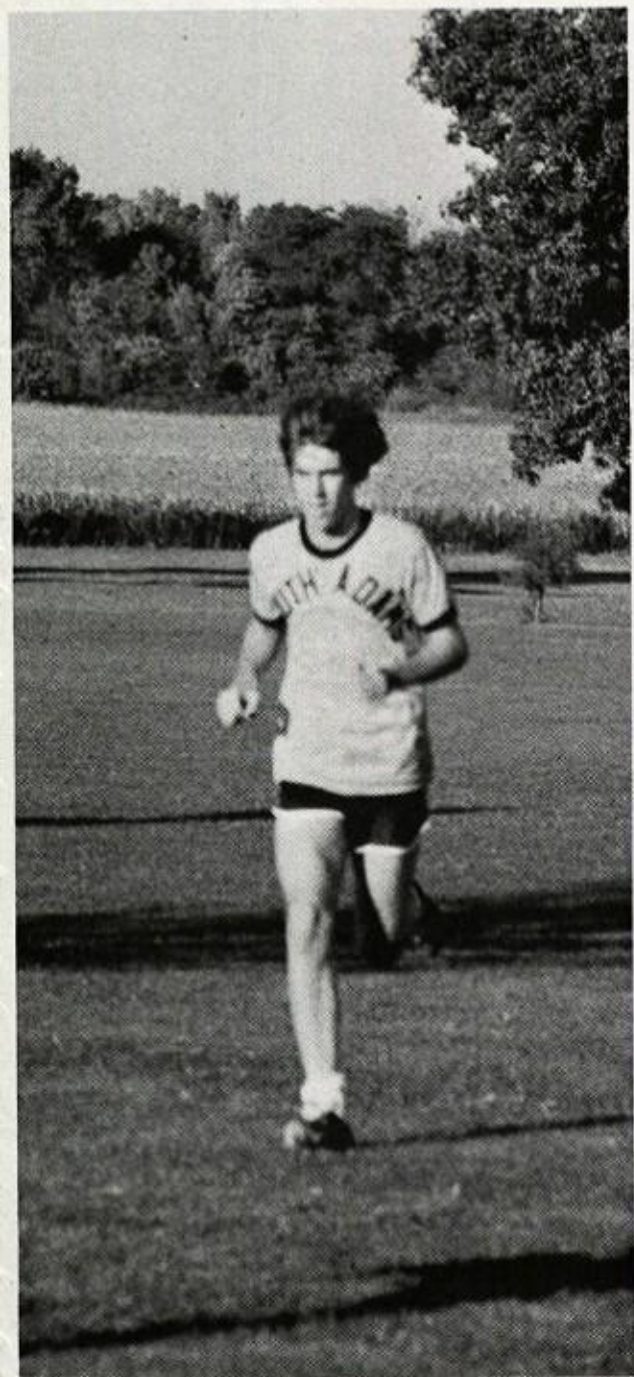

The tennis team has the best season ever in the history of South Adams. They also had the largest turnout that South Adams has ever seen. They did a great job and finished with a 10-6 season.

The cross country team was a small one, but the team effort was good. They worked hard throughout the year in preparation of the grueling two and a half mile race. Although they did not win the amount of matches that they wish they could have, they did a fine job.

Even though the girls did not finish with a winning season, they kept on trying and showed great team spirit. Bruised knees and jammed fingers were the only minor injuries the girls received, and through all those struggles, it was still a lot of fun for the girls under the supervision of new coach DiAnn Karas.

Homecoming

On October 17th, South Adams High School was scheduled to hold their annual Homecoming activities, but due to the weather conditions, the activities were cancelled and rescheduled for the following evening. This night proved to be more disastrous than the previous one as the thermometer read a chilly 30, and Mother Nature had blessed us with 25 mph winds and a skin-drenching rainstorm. In spite of the loss of the football game and the cancellation of the parade, the night was not a total loss. The king and queen were crowned at half-time, and the dance and chicken barbecue were held.

Floats

Another part of the Homecoming festivities was the preparation and building of the floats. Each class spent many hours (and some too much money$$) into putting these together. Their efforts were not in vain, though, as a lot of good floats were produced. Much to the dismay of many upperclassmen, the eighth grade float took first place with the theme "Jaws Wait for Tiger Bait."

Although the wrestling team did not finish their season with a record that they were really satisfied with, there were many outstanding wrestlers on the team. Moose (Kent) Werst, a junior on the team, and the only seniors, Feril Hoffer and Lee Von-Gunten, did a great job. South Adams is not only proud of these but also of the whole team.

Girls' Basketball

The girls had a good season and finished with a 10-7 record. They played together well and showed a lot of pride and spirit. They were defeated in an overtime game of the sectional finals by a single point in a fine performance.

The varsity team had trouble putting it together this year, but they were a dedicated team. They had a lot of spirit, and they displayed fine sportsmanship. They will be losing six seniors, but the sophomores and juniors who saw action this season will do a fine job next year.

Gymnastics Fine Season

The Gymnastics team had a fine season being undefeated in intermediate competition and suffering only 3 losses in beginning competition. The beginning team placed ninth in the conference meet and the intermediate team was second. Julie Sauder was second on the parallel bars at sectional and Sue Lehman was second in the all-around competition.

The 1975-76 South Adams swim team was not a large team but it was a hardworking one. With 2 practices a day, they swam about 12,000 yards daily. The hard work paid off. Although they had a 2-8-1 season, they averaged about eight firsts a meet, totaling 88 out of 110 firsts during the year. Six of the eight swimmers qualified for the State meet by placing first or second in the sectional.

Girls' Swimming

This year is the first year that South Adams has had a separate girls' swim team. These girls worked hard and they finished their season with a fine record of 4-2.

Golf

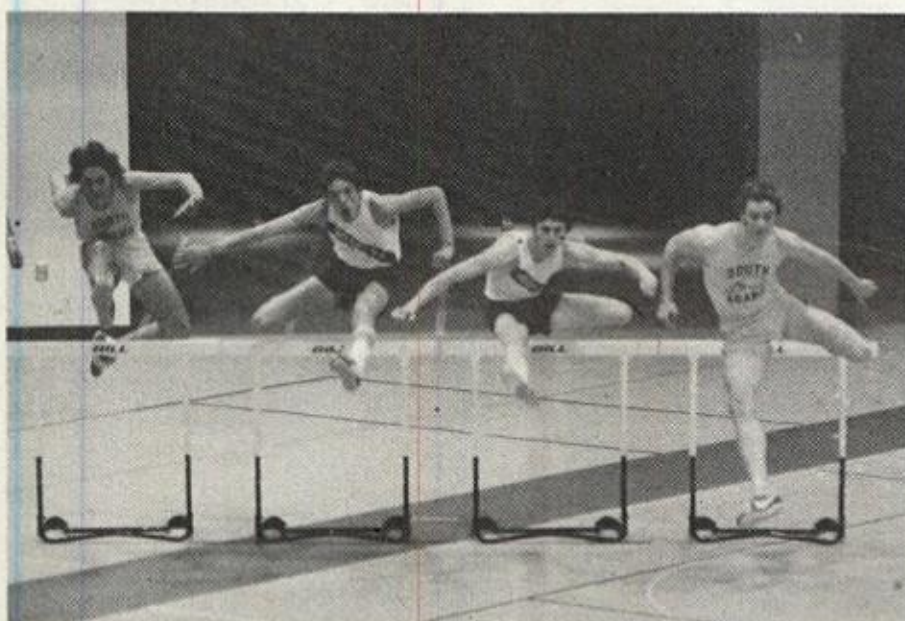

The golf team coached by Rod Mosser had a rough season this year. During the season, however, the team had some very good scores and they showed a lot of improvement. Most of the lettering players were seniors. There were several underclassman members who were not shown on the team picture.

Boys' Track

The boys' track team coached by Gene Grogg did not have much depth, but had some good individuals. The team had a competitive spirit and worked hard. The members also had a lot of fun as they frolicked around after practices and meets.

Girls' Track

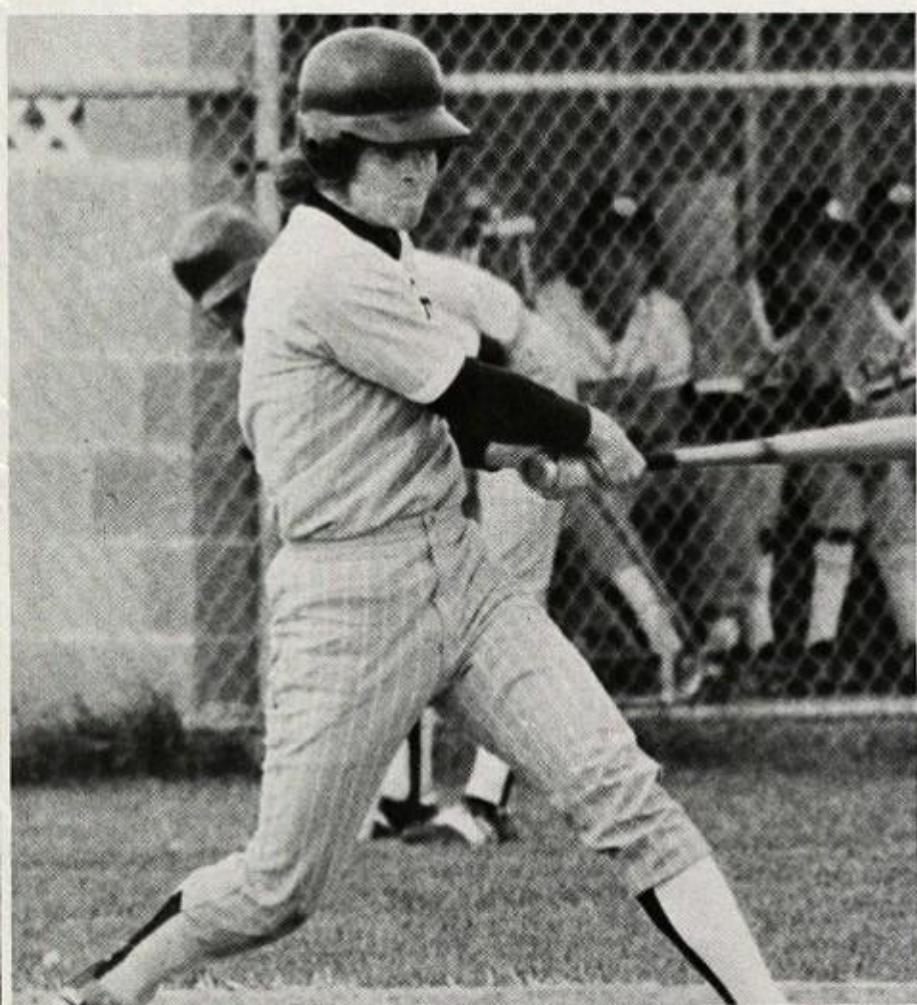

The girls' track team had a .500 season. They had a lot of fun even though several of the meets were very cold. Although they did not finish with an excellent season this year, they should do well next year as they are only losing one senior.

Baseball

Many times the work of the baseball teams go unnoticed. The boys on these teams put a lot of hard work and effort into this sport, often times under the hot afternoon sun. Although at the time, the scores are incomplete, they are having a winning season. Keep up the good work!

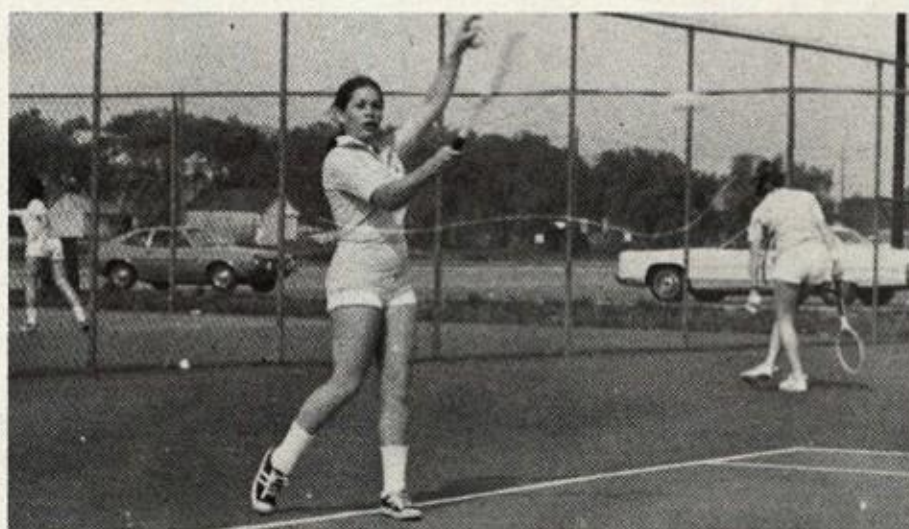

Pictures: Top: Brad Weaver slugs the ball. Bottom, L-R: 1. Coach Stahly yells instructions. 2. Tab Liechty catches behind the plate. 3. Mark Van Emon waits for throw from the outfield.

Girls' Tennis

The girls' tennis team had a fine season this year, but they also had some hard work. Before the season started, the girls were running around the track getting in shape. A new face around the school Terry Larson coached the girls to many victories.

Pictures, top-bottom: 1. Kathy Sheets returns a serve. 2. Brenda Liechty hits a routine forehand. 3. Some unidentified tennis player tries a backhanded shot. 4. Entertainment

South Adams saw a large turnout in the Marching Band, Pom Pon Corps, and Auxiliary Corps. The group, as a whole, did a good job providing half-time entertainment at the football games. They also participated in band contests and parades, and did a great job representing our school. The pom pon girls and twirlers also entertained on several occasions at the home basketball games. A lot of effort was put into their performances and they should be commended for a job well done.

Pep Band

The pep band provided the music at the home varsity basketball games. They played many contemporary songs as well as fight and school songs and the national anthem. The pep band's work often goes unnoticed as well as the many hours that they spend practicing their songs; however, it wasn't all work. After the final game, they went to Mr. Knoch's house for a party. They did a great job and in the meantime, had a lot of fun.

Pictures, L. to R., Top to Bottom: 1. Pep band providing music at a game. 2. Mr. and Mrs. Knoch fixing pizzas for their party. 3. Pep band as a group. 4. Larry Sprunger enjoys a basketball game.

Symphonic Band

The Symphonic Band, consisting of students in grades 10 through 12 and under the baton of Gene Knoch, did an excellent job performing this year. They participated in several concerts, including SABB. The band progressed well throughout the year and had some fine players. Sue Hartman received a gold medal at state contest for a clarinet solo, and Kathy Sheets a silver medal for a French horn solo.

Officers are listed as follows: President - Larry Sprunger; Vice-President - Kent Frank; and Secretary-Treasurer - Peggy Culp.

Pictures: The top two pictures are of the band performing in Winter Concert. The bottom picture is of the band as a group.

Chamber Choir

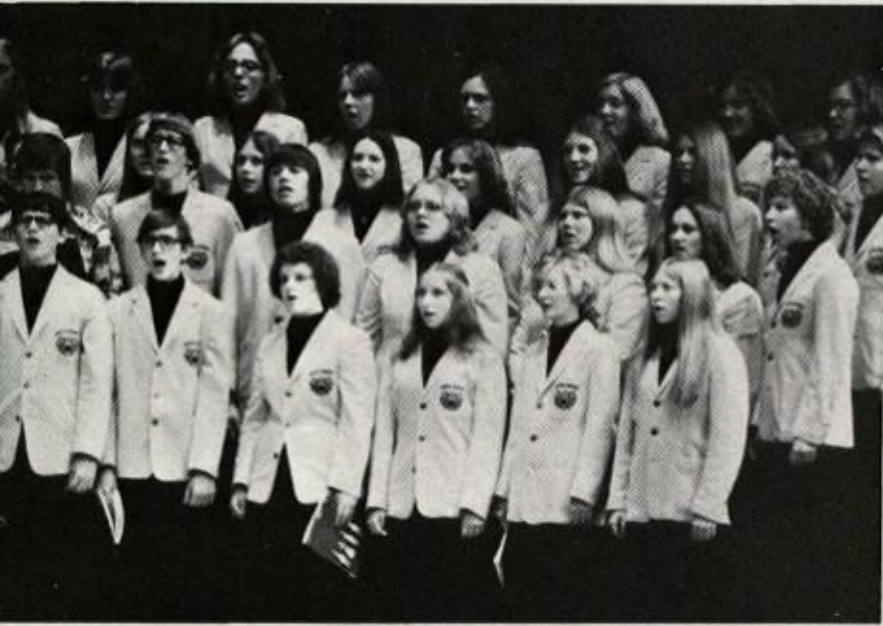

The Chamber Choir did a fine job this year under the direction of Mr. Garrett Epp. They participated in several concerts, as well as singing for numerous organizations.

Officers of the Chamber Choir are as follows: President - Kent Sprunger; Vice-President - Lee Von Gunten; Secretary-Treasurer - Audrey Liechty.

Pictures, Top to Bottom: The Choir performs in a concert. 2. Lee Von Gunten, Brian Habegger, Kent Sprunger, and Craig Sprunger make up a barbershop quartet. 3. The personnel of the Chamber Choir.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir, consisting of students from grades 10, 11, and 12, also did a fine job this year and placed well in contest. Under the direction of Mr. Garrett Epp, the choir performed in many concerts at South Adams.

The officers are: President - Scott Lehman; Vice-President - Suanne Sprunger; and Secretary-Treasurer - Cindy Sprunger.

Pictures: The top two pictures show the choir performing in concerts, and the bottom picture is of the entire A Cappella Choir.

Orchestra

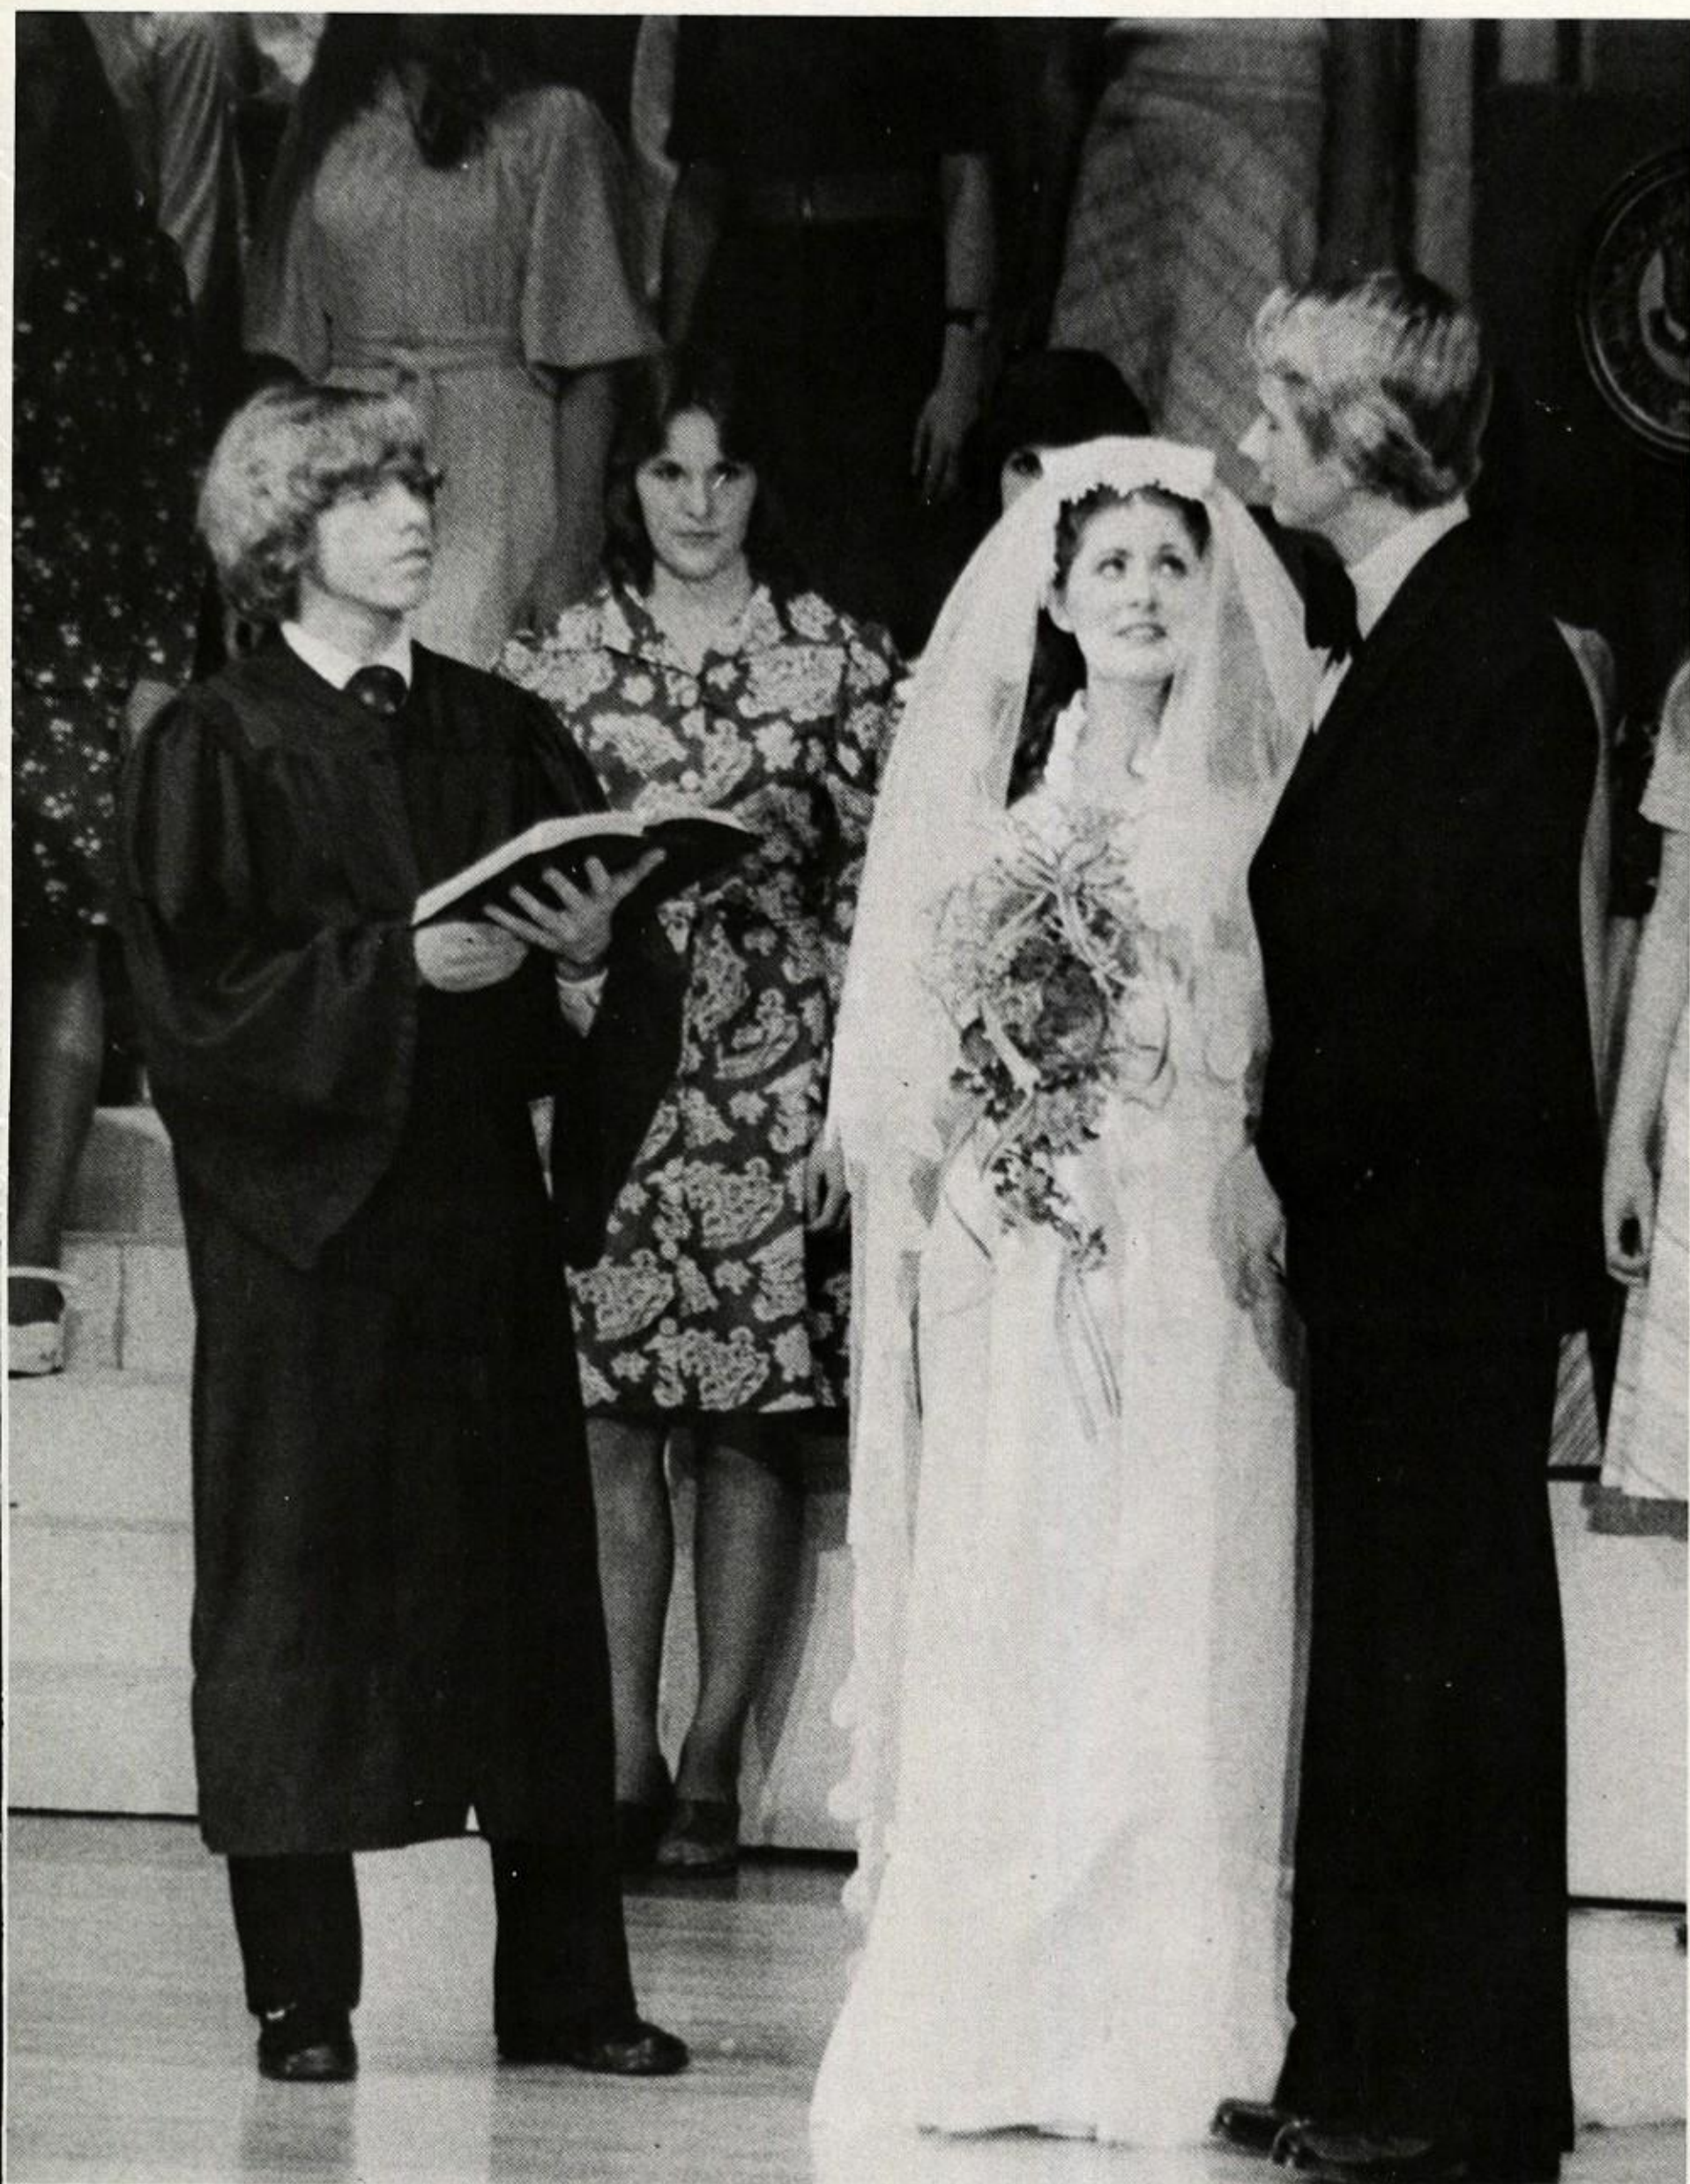

Many fine musicians were in the orchestra this year. They played excellent music under the direction of Gene Knoch.

DRAMA

Larry Sprunger unites Suanne Sprunger and Mike Habegger in holy matrimony in the high school musical "Of Thee I Sing."

"Of Thee I Sing" was presented this year as the South Adams High School musical. The story concerned President Wintergreen (Mike Habegger) and Mary Turner (Suanne Sprunger), who met, fell in love, and married, in spite of the fact that President Wintergreen was supposed to marry the winner of the beauty pageant, Diana Debaroh (Connie Henn).

The production was very comical as Wintergreen, with the help of his aides, managed to get into office and out of all kinds of trouble.

The Drama Club presented several plays during the year. Here are some of the highlights of their Christmas production.

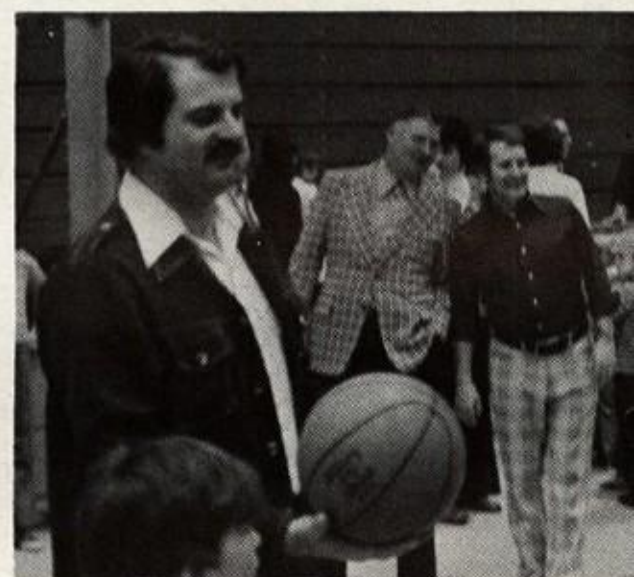

ACTIVITIES

Music Carnival

The carnival is a yearly event that always draws a lot of people. Some of the activities of the evening are a cake walk, bingo stand, basketball free throw stand, ring toss stand, and many others. Before the carnival starts, a fish and tenderloin supper is held. The evening is an enjoyable one for all that attend.

JR. - SR. RECEPTION

"The Way We Were"

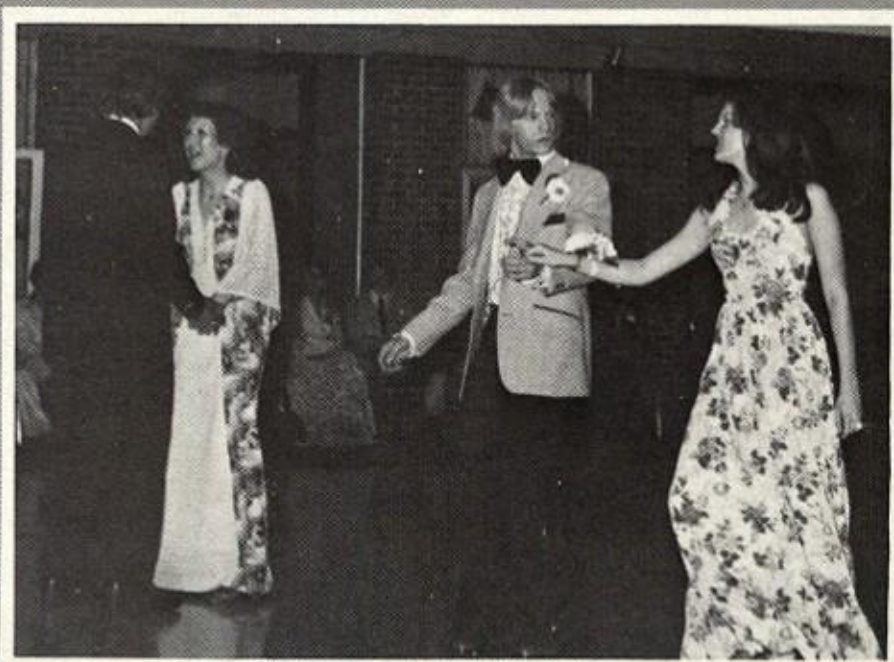

This year, the theme of the 1975-76 Junior-Senior Reception was "The Way We Were." The main events of the evening were pictures, the dinner, Senior awards, the movie "American Graffiti," and a dance with the group Magnum. The decorations in the commons resembled "Happy Days," complete with a juke box. The carpeted area was decorated in a beautiful park scene with benches and a fountain. The evening was the last formal event of the year for the seniors and they wish to thank the junior class for the hard work they put into this very successful reception.

Pictures: 1. Sonya Schwartz, Brian Habegger and their dates. 2. Magnum performing during the dance. 3. Couples in the park scene. 4. Couples slow-dancing.

So what if I'm a senior? There's just one week left of school and then I'm on my own. Can't wait till graduation . . . it'll be great. I'll cruise up front, grab that diploma, say "thanks, buddy," and run. S'pose I don't know where I'm going though. Before, all I did was follow the crowd. I knew I could always find someone at the bowling alley, at Trees or just drivin' around. But it's gonna be different. We'll all head different directions and try to make it on our own. Look at this - letting graduation get to me this way after twelve years of being a hard guy. Oh geez . . . gotta get back to the routine. I may even miss that when it's over.

It's graduation and it's unbelievable that I'm here. They'll call my name in a few minutes, and I'll walk up to receive my diploma . . . where do I go from there? I've always had the security of the school routine and its activities, surrounded by the friends I was so familiar with and loved so much. Now we'll all go in different directions. I wonder how long it will be before the memories that meant so much start to fade. After twelve years of this, you would think that I would be ready to move on, but I feel like I'm leaving a part of me behind. Maybe that's good, though, because I really have changed in the last few years that I've been here. Well, pretty soon, they'll get to my name. Then I'll be up there and it will be all over. In a way, I guess everything's really just beginning.

Last Minute Memories

As graduating seniors, we enjoy looking back to our earlier years of high school. As we do this, we note how everyone's appearance has changed. We can also see some of our accomplishments, such as our floats, and our Jr.-Sr. The following pictures are from previous years in school.

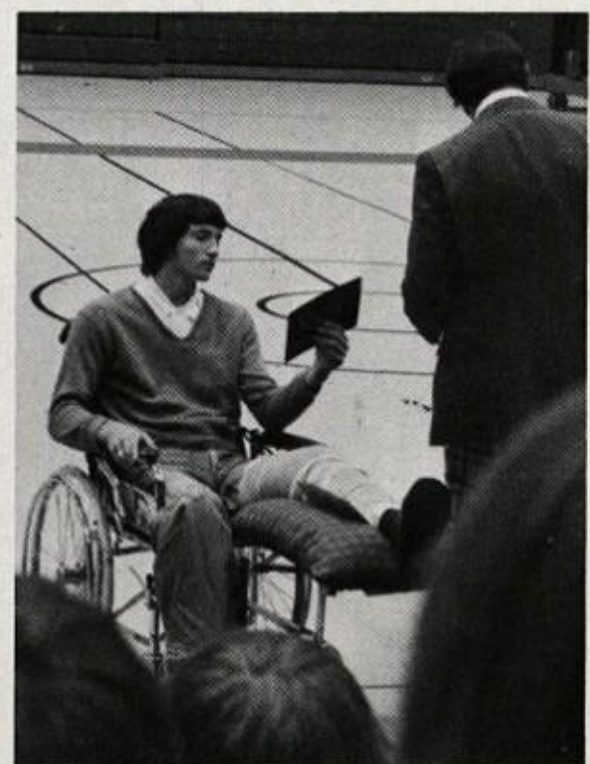

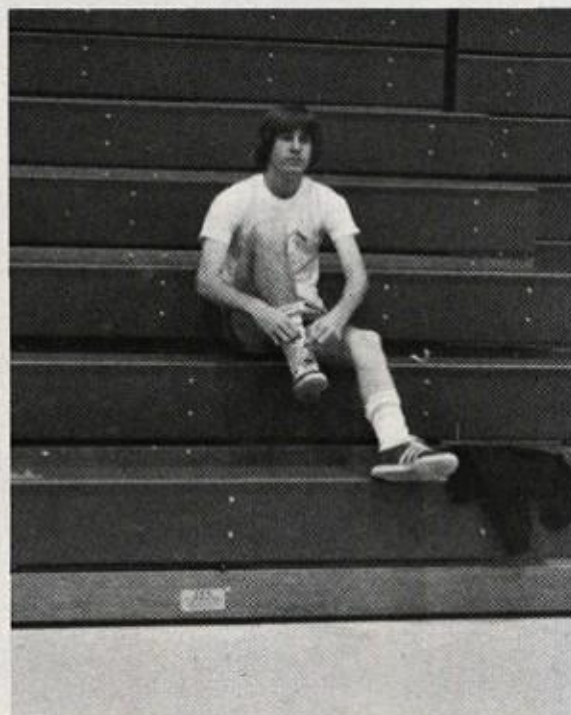

Pictures: 1. Tim Cincotta, Feril Hoffer, Brad Weaver, and Greg Yoder in their junior year. 2. Our junior float that placed 2nd in competition. 3. Our 3rd place Sophomore float. 4. Getting set up for our Jr.-Sr. "Summer Breeze." 5. The fountain at the Jr.-Sr.

1. Julie Nagel and Laurie Kaeser relaxing during a study hall. 2. Greg Yoder giving an "inspirational" talk during pep club. 3. Rick Stucky getting his rest before practice. 4. Craig Sprunger with nothing to do in study hall. 5. Jim Minnich enjoying his bus ride. 6. Tab Liechty video-taping a basketball game. 7. Tim Armstrong at the '75 athletic banquet.

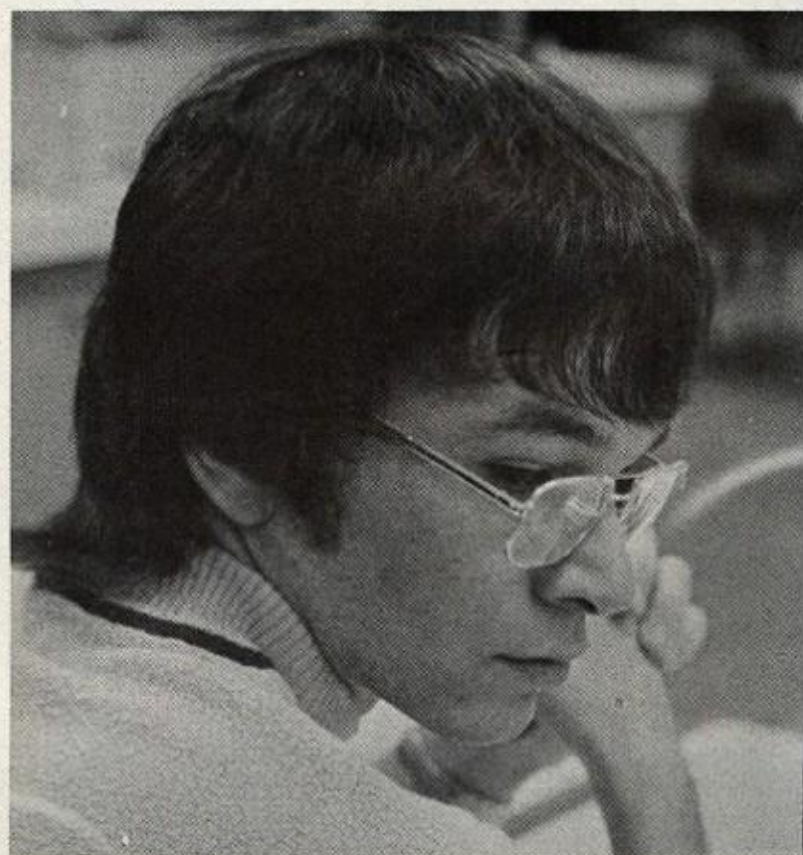

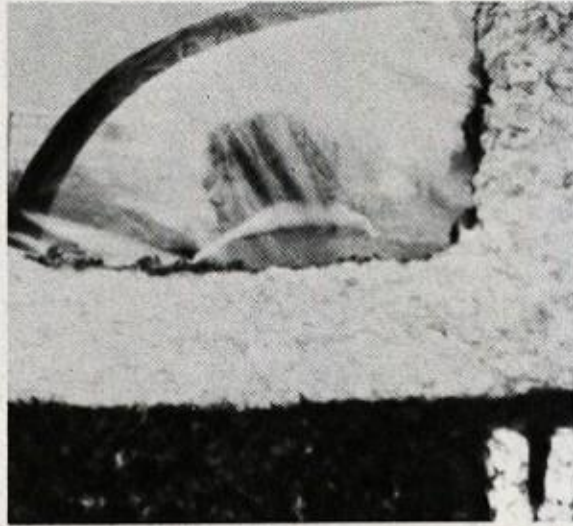

Last Minute Memories includes not only our previous years in school, but also our senior year.

Here are some of our final glimpses of our class in their last year in school.

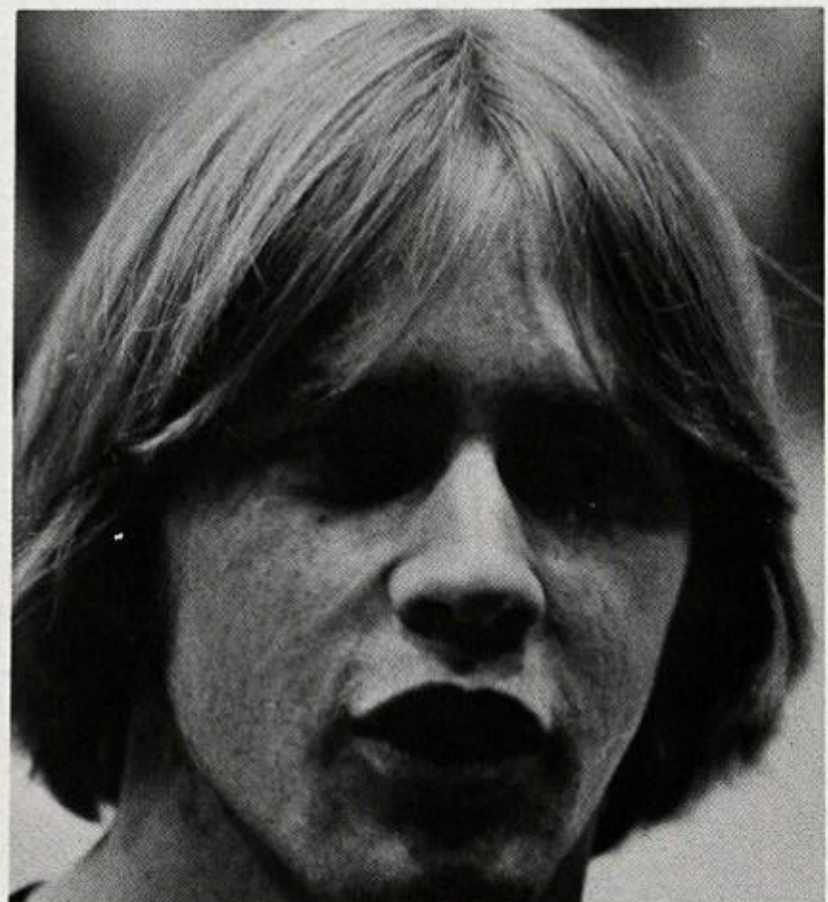

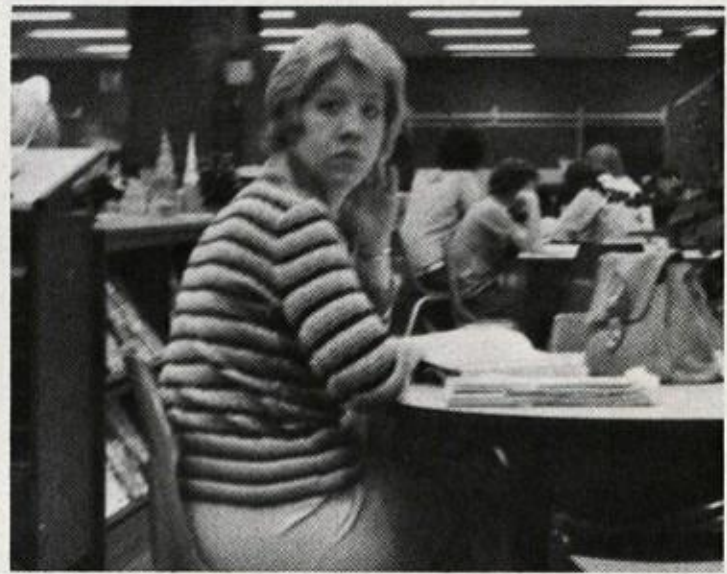

1. Tom Muselman and Brad Weaver enjoying their free time in the IMC. 2. Connie Henn caught by the camera. 3. Sven Clark and his dad at "Parents Night." 4. Tim Cincotta, Rhonda Bertsch, Joyce Minnich, and Dan Koehler showing off. 5. Glen Mathys in a daze.

1. Chuck Sprunger, the only "pilot" in our class. 2. Tim Cincotta and Dave Pyle at a school dance. 3. Ricky Fueckiger in the IMC. 4. Carol Kirsch looks up in shock from studying. 5. Jeremi Yager in one of her quiet moods. 6. Feril Hoffer talking to someone.

LOOKING BACK

Four years. For some it has been too long. Others have felt that it was days of good times, but everyone agrees it has been an experience. Our freshman year is really something to remember. The beginning year of high school, and what did we do but switch from the old school to the new one. Moving days, the joining of pep club, the beginning of participating in high school sports and activities, struggling through the first year of a foreign language, running down "senior hall" and wondering if we could ever be as mature as those upcoming graduates — these were experiences shared by everyone.

Our sophomore year didn't bring about as many new experiences as did the previous one but still it held excitement. Class rings, licenses, and the beginning of "bombing around" gave us something to get enthused about. Although we were only sixteen, we began to acquire new responsibilities and we took a forward step toward maturity.

Still being considered as underclassmen by the seniors but viewing ourselves as upperclassmen, we had a full junior year. We were the first class to have a sectional coat check, where we sold candy "undercover" to help defray some of the Jr.-Sr. costs. And, oh, what work went into that Reception. It was something to be really proud of. That year responsibilities began mounting up and we were forced to begin thinking about what we would do after graduation.

Our senior year. We had made it this far, but could we make it after graduation on our own? Our dreams from yesterday were becoming a reality. Many seniors fell ill to the dreadful sickness, senioritis. Teachers were dismayed by what was termed "senior taper"; however, we had serious moments also. Senior finals were a thing to be dreaded, but as in many other instances, we survived. Most of all, we will remember May 30, 1976. It was a time to put the past behind us and begin to build new tomorrows for ourselves.
